

Spoken Word Poetry Workshop

Recover Out Loud with Ryan Flannigan

In this four-week workshop, we'll practice expressing ourselves through spoken-word poetry. We'll freewrite together each session, turn those scribbles into poems, find the voice of those poems and then eventually perform them. We won't share our own poetry right away. We'll build up to that by first practicing performing other poets' poems.

4 Week Workshop - In Person
Starts November 6th
Mondays 7:00 pm to 8:30pm
